ATTENTION!

UNC Greensboro (UNCG)
STUDENTS

Participants are needed for a confidential study looking at aggression in relationships among Black/African American college students.

To participate you must:
- Self-identify as a Black or African American male or female
- Full time college student at UNCG
- Be between the ages of 18 and 24 (inclusive)
- Report at least one experience with aggression and/or violence involving a romantic/sexual partner in the past 12 months

Violence includes:
- Physical violence (e.g., hitting, slapping, pushing)
- Sexual violence
- Verbal/Emotional violence
- Stalking and psychological aggression (including coercive tactics, threatening)

Participation Involves: About 60-90 minutes of your time in a one-on-one, private interview.

You will be compensated with a $25.00 gift card for your time

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED
Scan the QR code to fill out a pre-screening form and a member of the research team will contact you if you are eligible OR
Send a text to (919) 827-4021 OR Email: yddyson@uncg.edu