

GROWTH

BROWN BAG ZOOM LUNCH “N” LEARN with Dr. Elise Eifert, Graduate Gerontology Program Coordinator and
Dr. Chantelle Caro, APT Assistant Professor

Gerontology is GROWing: What’s New with the Gerontology Program

Since moving online in 2017, the graduate programs in Gerontology have changed dramatically. Important shifts in the delivery, curriculum, faculty, and students have occurred. Do you know the details? This presentation will describe recent changes to the graduate programs, the importance of these changes to the future of Gerontology at UNCG, and why expertise in aging is more in demand than ever before!

Wednesday, October 28, 2020, 12:00 pm – 2:00 pm

<https://uncg.zoom.us/j/93025265775?pwd=WFBaaWY3WGJHWVRMbVAvem1NeldYZz09>

for more information about the UNCG Gerontology, Research Outreach, Workforce development & Teaching Hub (GROWTH), phone: 336-334-5147 or visit: gerontology.uncg.edu

Sponsored by the UNCG Gerontology Program and the Office of Research and Engagement

