Requirements for HDFS Majors – Main Campus

Admission to the Department of Human Development and Family Studies is granted based on consideration of the following criteria:

For the Child, Youth and Family Development concentration:

GPA – a minimum GPA of 2.70*

Semester Hours – a minimum of 51 semester hours must be completed. For transfer students, 12 hours must be completed at UNCG in order to qualify for admission into the program.

Foundation Courses – each of the following foundation courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C (a C- will not be accepted):

- HDF 211 – Human Development Across the Life Span
- HDF 212 – Families and Close Relationships
- HDF 302 – Infant and Child Development
- HDF 303 – Adolescent Development
- HDF 304 – Adult Development can replace HDF 302

For Birth through Kindergarten and Early Care and Educations concentrations:

GPA – a minimum GPA of 2.70*

Semester Hours – a minimum of 51 semester hours must be completed. For transfer students, 12 hours must be completed at UNCG in order to qualify for admission into the program.

Foundation Courses – each of the following foundation courses must be completed with a minimum grade of C (a C- will not be accepted):

- HDF 211 – Human Development Across the Life Span
- HDF 212 – Families and Close Relationships
- HDF 302 – Infant and Child Development

*If your Catalog Year for declaring an HDF major is prior to Fall 2018, the minimum GPA requirement is 2.50.