The Applied Practice (AP) Internship is a planned and thoughtful real-world experience in partnership with a community agency to enable UNCG graduate students to apply practical skills and knowledge learned in coursework to a public health setting that complements the student’s interests and career goals. This real-world experience is a unique opportunity to enable students to apply practical skills and knowledge learned through MPH coursework in a professional public health setting that complements the student’s interests and career goals. This culminating experience, coming at the close of their study is one that allows our students to practice public health skills that prepare them for employment opportunities and benefits your agency.

Overview of Requirements

The Community Health Education Internship course requires the student to:

1. Complete a minimum of 180 hours with the internship organization by the last day of classes for the enrolled semester. Spring semester 2022 runs Monday January 10 – April 27, 2022.
2. Engage in either a pre-existing project or a new initiative during the internship that is beneficial for the internship organization.
3. Produce for preceptor and faculty review at least 2 “applied practice products” (APP) that reflect the student’s mastery of pre-identified public health education competencies (See below)
4. Complete select assignments, reports and presentations regarding the internship experience in their online course.
5. Participate in synchronous meetings with UNCG’s internship course instructor regarding professional development and internship progress.
6. Is required even during times of “pandemic” which hopefully will end!

Preceptor Eligibility Requirements

The preceptor serves the critical role of facilitating a successful learning experience. The preceptor is required to:

1. Have at least 3-5 years professional experience in a field related to the student’s project and activities.
2. Have the time and expertise to mentor and supervise the student.
3. Be able to oversee the student’s experience work on-site.
4. Be able to provide guidance and feedback on a consistent basis to the student regarding their performance during their experience.
5. Be able to provide opportunities to acquire new skills, knowledge, and professional awareness.
4. Complete an evaluation of the student’s performance at the midpoint and end of the internship experience.

Preceptor Responsibilities

Prior to the start of the internship:
1. Be familiar with UNCG’s sexual harassment policy which applies to internships: https://policy.uncg.edu/university-policies/sex_gender_harrassment/
2. Collaborate with the student to establish a final internship project and required products (see below).
3. Preceptors, along with the student, the student’s MPH Advisor, and the Internship Coordinator all sign the Internship Proposal Agreement (Part A and Part B) (Attachment 1).
4. As soon as possible, inform student/Internship if a Memorandum of Understanding/Agreement (MOU/MOA) is required. UNCG does not require a MOU/MOA to complete the internship.
5. As soon as possible, inform the student if a background check, orientation, training, immunizations are required.

After the start of the internship
1. Review and e-sign monthly timesheets for students; the student submits these to the Internship Coordinator.
2. Establish touchpoints with the student throughout the internship for guidance during their work and development of their required work products.
3. Complete midpoint and final evaluation online surveys of student performance.
4. Orient the student to the organization’s goals, structure, internal communication, and partners.
5. Make themselves available to the student.
6. Provide oversight, guidance, and adequate resources to facilitate completion of the agreed upon activities. Invite and encourage the student to learn new skills, and attend meetings, trainings, and other events that will enhance the learning experience.
7. Integrate the student with regular staff and introduce the student to others who can assist with career opportunities.
8. Provide direction to supplemental resources, opportunities for networking, and career advancement.
9. Provide periodic feedback and guidance to the student in writing and/or through meetings, and through the progress report and final evaluation.
10. Communicate with the Internship Coordinator, as needed.
11. Preceptors should review their organizations’ applicable policies and expectations with the student. Preceptors will review the UNCG MPH Preceptor Guidelines and consult with Internship Coordinator for additional details, as needed.

Applied Practice Products

Competencies
The internship must result in at least two applied practice products (APP). An APP is a tangible outcome of the Internship that has three essential purposes:

1. Be of value to the agency.
2. Be a valuable learning experience for the student.
3. Demonstrate MPH competencies.

Across the products produced for the internship the students must demonstrate 5 MPH competencies; each APP must demonstrate at least 1 competency. In partnership with their preceptor and MPH Advisor, the student will identify the competencies and the products they will develop during their internship. Students must select from the competencies listed in the table below.
